

ANSWERS

Question 1

Who, what, why, when, where, how

Question 2

It could not have been buried any earlier than 1855

Question 3

The Tube or London Underground

Question 4

Harry Beck

Question 5

Nine Men's Morris

Question 6

They were among the books burned in huge public bonfires by the Nazis, who took power in Germany the month after The Flying Classroom was published.

Question 7

Emil and the Detectives

Question 8

What is it called? -- Who wrote it? -- When was it published? -- Who published it?
-- Where was it published? -- Which edition (the particular form or version) of the book is it?
-- Who owns the copyright? -- Where was it first published? -- What other books has the author written for this publisher? -- What is the International Standard Book Number (ISBN or catalogue number)? etc, etc.

Question 9

Walter Trier was the artist who drew the pictures on the cover and inside the book.

Question 10

Thomas Persi, one of the conspirators in the Gunpowder Plot

Question 11

He was guarding the barrels of gunpowder in the cellars underneath the House of Commons

Question 12

Because he was a servant, and they were known only by their last names.

Question 13

D B C A

Question 14

In tube stations

Question 15

Each year, at least two new designs are issued; they are free; they do not take up much space; they are well—designed so can make a good display; they tell us a lot, for example about changes to the underground system; you can identify new stations; some stations close or change their name; you can find new lines and new stations; they show the effect of new laws, eg making stations accessible to people who use wheelchairs; each map has the date it was issued.

Question 16

Red – remembering military service

White – remembering civilian casualties

Purple – remembering animals who suffer in wartime

Question 17

Making fireworks

Question 18

If there is an explosion, it is confined to one small area.

Question 19

Wells Fireworks, a family company based in Dartford, Kent. The factory shown here at Honor Oak is the Albert Works, run by Albert Wells.

Question 20

Plain Pine

Question 21

RMS Queen Mary

Question 22

Bayeux Tapestry

Question 23

Embroidered on cloth

Question 24

English women, who were known throughout Europe as the best at embroidery

Question 25

That in battle, a mace was used as a throwing weapon

Question 26

A Viking longboat

Question 27

Steering the ship

Question 28

A steerboard

Question 29

Starboard

Question 30

Normans are burning down the house

Question 31

A woman and a boy

Question 32

Women wore long gowns with long flared sleeves.

Boys wore tunic and hose, the same style of clothes as adults.

Question 33

Victorian

ends