

HISTORY DETECTIVES QUIZ EASTER 2018 -- ANSWERS

1 For what is this the original drawing?

-- London tube map

2 Who designed it?

-- Harry Beck

3 In what year was it first used?

-- 1933

4 What is the address for the History Detectives website?

-- carolharrismikebrown.com

5 What is the password for the History Detectives section?

-- History2014

6 Put these maps of London in order starting with the oldest. Clockwise from top left A B C D

-- C, A, B, D

7 What is this from?

-- Bayeux Tapestry

8 Who is the figure in the middle of this picture?

-- King Harold

9 Who is the figure on the right hand side?

-- Archbishop Stigant (sometimes spelt Stigand)

10 In what language is the writing?

-- Latin

11 What other ship does this Norman ship resemble?

-- Viking longboat

12 What is the man on the far left of the picture doing?

-- Steering the boat

13 What name does this give us?

-- Starboard

14 Write down two days of the week and where their names came from

SUNDAY - Sun's Day. Germanic translation of the Roman 'Day of the Sun'.

MONDAY - Moon's Day. Germanic translation of the Roman 'Day of the Moon'.

TUESDAY - Tyr's Day. Named for the Norse/Teutonic God.

WEDNESDAY - Woden's Day. Named for the Norse/Teutonic God.

THURSDAY - Thor's Day. Named for the Norse/Teutonic God

FRIDAY - Freya's Day. Named for the Norse/Teutonic Goddess.

SATURDAY - Saturn's Day. Germanic translation of the Roman 'Day of Saturn'.

15 Write down two months and where their names came from

JANUARY - named after Janus, god of beginnings.

FEBRUARY - named for Februa, the feast of purification.

MARCH - from Latin Martius, (month of) Mars.

APRIL - The name may derive from the Greek goddess of love, Aphrodite.

MAY - From the Greek Maia, goddess of spring (growth).

JUNE - From Latin mensis Junius, after the goddess Juno, queen of the gods.

JULY - From Latin Julius (Caesar) after whom it was named in 44 BC. The original name was quintilis, fifth month in the early Roman calendar.

AUGUST - From Latin Augustus (Caesar) 8 BC. The original name was Sextilis, sixth month in the early Roman calendar.

SEPTEMBER - seventh month in early Roman calendar (Sept = seven in Latin and French)

OCTOBER - eighth month in the early Roman calendar

NOVEMBER - ninth month of the early Roman calendar, from Latin novem = nine

DECEMBER - December, tenth month of the early Roman calendar

16 During which war was the CC41 label used?

--Second World War/WW2

17 Who made these?

-- Redman Brothers

18 When were they made?

-- January 1943

19 Who wore these?

-- members of the Women's Land Army

20 Where did the women wearing them work?

-- on farms (will take forestry as well, although we haven't covered the Timber Corps)

21 What are the six questions?

-- who, what, where, when, why, how

22 What do we do before the start of each session?

-- wash hands

23 What do we always write with to record information?

-- pencil

ends